It is said that the Mayor is deeply perplexed, but will find a way out of the difficulty by permitting all three Commissioners to hold over until after election. If he pursues that course the politicians will take it as a positive indication that he will seek a third-term nomination.

President Meakim's friends say he would not be satisfied with such an arrangement, and that he would spoil all by resigning. That would place the Mayor between two fires again. If he appointed Mr. Meakim's successor without reappointing Messrs. Koch and Fitzpatrick, or naming their successors, he would be compelled to show his hand too plainly, it is thought, and on the other hand he would make enemies of the candidates who are after the places of Messrs. Koch and Fitzpatrick by not complicating their claims to recognition.

FOR LUBS ELECTION INSPECTORS. Assemblyman: Fa quhar's bill, which pro-oses to reduce the number of election in-pectors at each polline-place in this city rom four to three, is attracting more than sual interest in political circles. Various lews are expressed about it. The most larming expression of opinion comes from sembers of the Southera Society, whe go so ar as to regard its possible effect on national oblitics.

Southern men say the bill is bad oblitics. It is not denied that the object of the bill is to give the dominant party in New York City two of the three election inspectors. At present the kepublicans and democrats each appoint two of the inspectors. The Southern men argue that as Tammany Hall is in control anyhow the bill is unnecessor coulties, legislation and they sectively itali is in control anyhow the bill is unnecessary political legislation, and they seriously declare that it might furnish the next congress, if it should be Republican, a precedent and an argument for a Force bill.

It is suggested that it would be far better politics to pass a law requiring the Election boards outside of New York and Kings counties to be made non-partisan. The present law provides for only three inspectors to each Election Board outside New York and Brookyn, and the manner in which they are apointed insures that two of each Board belong to the same political party.

The men who talk the loudest of the injusce of partisanizing the boards in New York re silent regarding the partisan boards in ural districts.
